

Intern- Economic Research – 252351Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago*Primary Location: IL- ChicagoEmployee Status: temporaryOvertime status: Non-exemptJob Type: InternshipTravel: NoWork Hours: 8-5, Full TimeJob Summary:

Conducts statistical and economic analyses of current macroeconomic, microeconomic, financial and regional data, and provides research assistance to the economists. The level of work required is considered entry-level and staff work under direct supervision. This job has no direct reports.

Responsibilities:

- Supports the economists in their basic and applied research by following instructions to perform tasks including collecting data, conducting moderately complex statistical analysis, writing statistical software programs, and organizing the presentation of results.
- Assists the economists in the analysis of public policy issues and events. Issues include monetary policy, bank regulation, payments systems, financial markets, community development and the state of the US and global economies.
- Researches economic topics for economists' articles
- Prepares a variety of charts, tables and descriptive text for Department management or other staff economists to use in their briefing of the President and the Board of Directors.
- Follows instructions to research and organize background materials for presentations to the President; responds to other System-wide directives and requests
- Performs other duties as requested.

Qualifications:

- Currently pursuing a Bachelor's degree in Economics, Finance, Business, Mathematics, or related field with emphasis on qualitative and/ or analytical skills.
- Research Assistant experience preferred
- SAS STATA or Matlab experience preferred.

Application Requirements:

To be considered, all applications must include a cover letter, resume and unofficial transcriptions.